Happy New Year Everyone!

This week we have started our new topic of 'Starry Night' and read Whatever Next! by Jill Murphy. We wrote our own predictions for what Baby Bear might do once he got to the moon. We built our own spaceships and wrote lists of what we would take if we were to visit space. We looked at the number '0' and did a sorting activity of what shows zero and what doesn't show zero.

Next Week

We will be focusing our learning around Peace at Last by Jill Murphy.

Well done to Jackson for being the star of the week this week!
