Chaucer Primary School - Friday 19th January 2024

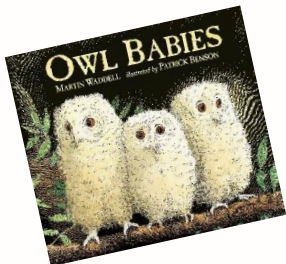

Hello!

This week we have been looking at the text 'Peace at Last' by Jill Murphy. We wrote about what we do when we get ready for bedtime and wrote about what we think each of the characters might say. In Maths, we were looking at one more and one less, using practical methods to help us. We have loved making telescopes, space helmets and rockets in the junk modelling area.

Next Term:

We will be focusing our learning around Owl Babies by Martin Waddell.

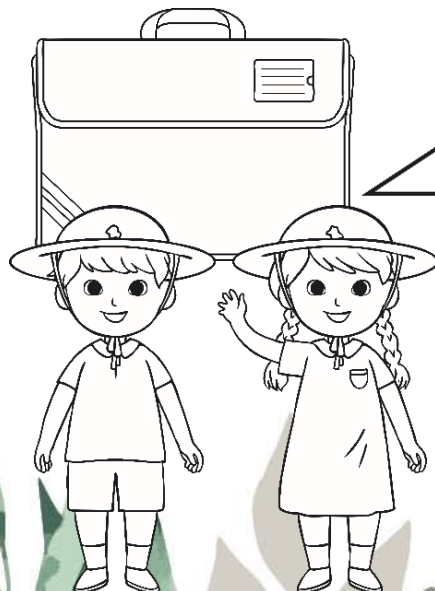

Well done to Aurora for being the star of the week this week!
